Proceedings of the 2013 congress available online

The congress proceedings of the 4th Annual Global Forum on Urban Resilience and Adaptation are now available online here.

The proceedings feature new research and case studies on urban resilience. The papers explore key themes of the 2013 congress in more depth, such as water security, multi-stakeholder collaboration, green growth, risk assessment, and coastal cities at risk. The authors are renowned experts in their respective fields who were chosen to speak at the congress and elected to publish an article in the online proceedings.
