

- IDRC is back at Resilient Cities with more exciting sessions focused on science-policy exchange for effective water management in the Global South and exploring the link between urban violence and climate change.
- A strong researcher-practitioners track with sessions organized by UCCRN, IIED, and WRI.

Check our website for more information!

Become a congress exhibitor!

Resilient Cities 2017 provides a unique opportunity for cities, organizations, business, and academic institutions to present their projects to an international and multidisciplinary audience. Seize the opportunity to showcase your work as an exhibitor and receive high visibility to your adaptation work.

Other partnership opportunities include:

- Sponsoring a congress session or side event;
- Hosting a forum or training session;
- Holding your annual meeting at Resilient Cities.

Contact us at resilient.cities@iclei.org to learn more or click here!

4th Open European Day

The 4th annual Open European Day \(OED\), organised by the European Environment Agency (EEA) and ICLEI European Secretariat will be taking place on May 3rd, 2017 in conjunction with Resilient Cities, with key themes being innovation (Cities bring forth creative solutions to thrive and adapt), co-creation (Citizens actively participate and take ownership of their urban environment), and transformation (Cities change the structures and systems in place by and for citizens while adapting). The OED is co-organized by RESIN and PLACARD and supported by RAMSES and the European Commission (DG Research & Innovation and DG CLIMA).

Join European cities like Bologna (Italy) and Bratislava (Slovakia) in discussing key themes pertaining to urban adaptation within the European context. Participation in the event is free of charge with registration being subject to confirmation. You can pre-register for OED here.

Plan your trip: don't miss these exciting events!

May 3rd: Attend the EPIC-N training opportunity as an observer. Click here to learn more.

May 4th: Opening Reception with live music at the Kunstmuseum (art museum) hosted by the City of Bonn.

May 5th: Dinner option in town - use this opportunity to network and socialize with fellow participants and speakers at a Greek restaurant in the city center. Seats are limited! More information can be found here.

May 6th: The annual firework spectacle Rhein in Flammen, accompanied by music, will be illuminating the Rhine and the adjacent Rheinaue, a large public green space south of the city center with a variety of food and drink stalls. Admission is free of charge. More information can be found here.

Host

NACHHALTIGKEIT.
SUSTAINABILITY.
DURABILITÉ.
BONN.

Organizer

Get Involved

Copyright © 2016 ICLEI World Secretariat, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list