Resilient Cities 2013 presents speakers, city cases and the Resilient Building and Construction Forum

Hosting three forums, covering a number of topics and welcoming municipalities from around the world, Resilient Cities 2013 is an event not to be missed!

- This year the Reality Check Workshops - sessions featuring good resilience practice examples in cities, will focus on Dar es Salaam (Tanzania) and Vancouver (Canada) as well as cross-cutting lessons learned from the Asian Cities Climate Change Resilience Network (ACCCRN).

- The head of UNISDR, Margareta Wahlström, joins the closing plenary where she will share her insights on disaster risk related resilience.

- The Resilient Building and Construction Forum, supported by the World Green Building Council (WGBC) and Forest Stewardship Council (FSC), will look into the intersection between urban resilience and the construction sector featuring case studies from Japan, USA and the Netherlands.

- Ten city representatives from various continents will attend the Resilient Urban Food Systems Forum and share their experiences in developing food and urban agriculture initiatives.
